Dedication

The class of '72 does not want the qualities of a dedicated man to go unnoticed. The man to whom we dedicate this book has established himself as a true friend and teacher.

We have grown to know him and respect him: not only for his individual style of decent clothes, his yellow Opel, his happy-go-lucky spirit; and not only for his coaching exuberance in preparing football and baseball teams to play in athletic competition.

We have grown to know him and respect him because we have seen him teaching. His teaching duties go far beyond those of an ordinary teacher. He has been teaching special ed. for ten years, the last four as teacher in charge of special education in Swansea. Before many of his students can be taught they must be reached through patience and a very genuine friendship.

He has shown us how to act unselfishly. His personal commitment of helping human beings to live a happy and meaningful life has shown us what the true meaning of spirit is. This is why we dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Jack Furtado.

Miss Helen A. Reagan

Miss Helen A. Reagan has been associated with Joseph Case High School for 47 years. This year she graduates with us. She began as a teacher of English. She impressed her students, then, as one who took a personal interest in her students. She devoted part of her free-time helping her college bound students. Before the day began, she would ask her students if their lessons were "prepared or unprepared" and today still professes, "You will only get out of this school as much as you put into it." She is always willing to help those who help themselves. She was the unique teacher who could make Shakespeare interesting or learning Burke's speech on Conciliation" a breeze!

A visit to Miss Reagan's office would certainly tell you alot about her personality. Her love of nature is personified by the many plants exhibited and bird feeders by the window. The cabinets contain a large variety of miniature furniture, her collection of Hummel figurines, and prints of Andrew Wyeth's paintings adorn the wall. She has great admiration for the Kennedy family and refers to them often.

Words cannot express the loyalty, love and dedication she has put into Case High School. Her relationship with the student body is one to be admired—everyone respects her for the lady that she is. The Class of 1972 will always treasure her friendship and Miss Reagan will always treasure her many memories of Joseph Case High School.

" . . . Here on earth, God's work must truly be our own."

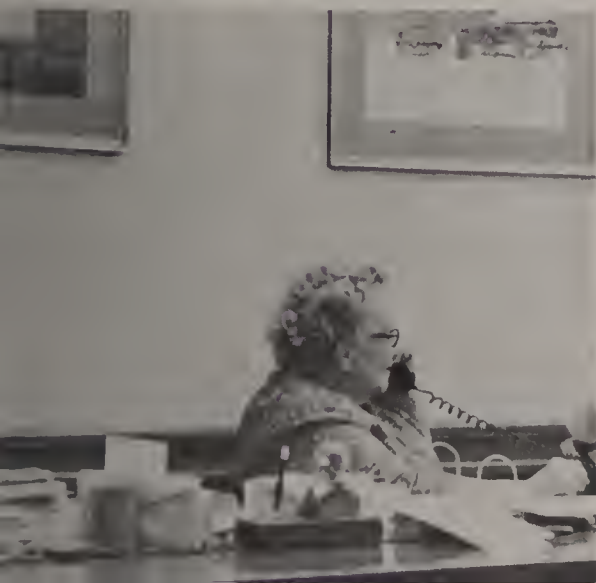

-J. F. Kennedy, Inaugural Address

"The proposition is peace. It is simple peace; sought in its natural course."

-Burke's Speech on Conciliation

"The quality of mercy is not strained, It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven Upon the place beneath:"

-Shakespeare

Administration

All anyone has to do is think of Case High School, and Mr. Silva, better known as "UNC", comes to mind. He is not only the "top man" as far as school and classes go, but is ever-present at all activities, outside of school.

This year's class felt especially close to Unc for many reasons. Probably the greatest reason being, that through our years in high school, we have learned to respect and honor this man. Many times during the course of the basketball season, Mr. Silva's home was used as a senior "meeting place", climaxed by a team party after the Somerset victory.

At many times during school, we have come across problems in curriculum, student-teacher relationships, and even personal problems, that we felt, we were capable of discussing with someone who would understand. Mr. Silva is THAT someone. Former students of Case High return to "talk things over" with Unc, and ask his opinion on matters, which they may even find hard to discuss with their own parents.

The senior class of Joseph Case High School, have much to be thankful for. We had the opportunity to experience Mr. Silva's Leadership and Understanding for our short stay at Case. THANK YOU, MR. SILVA!

takes and turned them into scores. During this bruising game we lost two defensive standouts, and a few merc players sustained sprained ankles. Dave Gibeau, our Co-captain, sustained a separated shoulder. Reports on Dave are good as he has to have a cast for six weeks, he'll still be ready for Turkey Day. Contrary to reports that he was finished for the year, Dave hasn't given up because he has attended every practice, helping in every way possible. He's also been keeping in shape by working out on the weight machine.

The second defensive stand-out was defensive end Wayne Turcotte, who sustained torn ligaments and had to be operated on the next day. This was Wayne's first year playing football and he was very impressive. His absence will be greatly missed.

The outlook for the season is a Winning Record. After looking at our schedule, it's going to be hard to accomplish. This year's schedule, as compared to past years, is very potent with Franklin (17-0 in the past two years), Westboro, (undefeated last year), and Milford, (Class C state champs).

Many people have said that football builds character and responsibility. It is said one learns how to face defeat, disappointment, and victory. The taste of victory will definitely

The time to "rebuild" the Cardinal Football Team is through. Every year, for the past eight seasons, players were saying that it was a rebuilding season. Well, that period is over and Case football is on a definite upswing. The Case High School football team proved that "71" was the end of the rebuilding years. The team's 5-4 record, the first winning season in those 8 years, was visible proof.

The team did have it's bad games, as well as good. But in each game, the guys came through with a super effort and were never disgraced. Victories over Old Rochester (8-6), Seekonk (12-0), Diman (58-6), King Philip (22-0), and the Super Victory over Somerset, (16-12) on Thanksgiving weekend, were the big highlights of the season. Football at Case High will be a coming thing in future years. Thanks to the coaches and to the winning team of "1971"!!

Santos' Decision Deciding Factor in Case Triumph

By PETE LEVESQUE

Case High coach Joe Santos feels that the biggest decision he has ever made in football (as player or coach) came in the final quarter of Saturday's contest against Somerset at Veterans Memorial Field in Swansea.

Santos' call proved to be a deciding factor in the Cardinals' 16-12 major upset over the Raiders. It gave the Swansea gridders their first winning season in eight years and another one-year hold on the Forty-Niner Trophy.

Santos, who was a member of the last winning Case team (1963), saw his squad faced with a do-or-die fourth down play in the final stanza. The Cardinals had inches to go for a first from their own 40 with one minute, 28 seconds remaining.

A time-out was called by Case and Santos conferred with good reason. The Cardinal stopper unit stalled the high-gear coach Ray McDonald Raiders' offense five times within the 40-yard line.

Nevertheless, a five-yard Somerset penalty aided the Cardinals. Early in the fourth chapter and the Raiders on Case's seven, quarterback Dave Driscoll bolted into the end zone but to no avail as the play was nullified by an offside penalty.

Three plays later Case took over on its own 10 with just over four minutes remaining and chewed up the remaining time. Bill Bunke and Doug Larrivee were outstanding ball-carriers in the final minutes for Case. Bill came up with a big first-down run, as did Larrivee.

Larrivee, a senior and middle linebacker on defense, made it uncomfortable for Somerset's Driscoll. Larrivee's "red-dogging" drove Driscoll out of the pocket on Cardinals were plentiful but the greatest play of the game was Bruce Cookson's secondary execution in the first chapter.

Somerset started from its own 30 and Thurston was left tackle for 40 yards to Case's 30. Driscoll went to the airways and spotted a mate open at the seven but Cookson managed to get there in time to knock down the ball.

Hard To Hold Farias

A difficult task for the Cardinals' defense was containing tackle Wayne Farias, who made several long gains. Farias also featured on the front defensive wall for Somerset.

Of the three passes intercepted, Case had two, both by Joe Medeiros, a junior who, Santos predicts, will be Kelly's successor at quarterback next year. The summary:

This year's Cross-Country team was in the midst of rebuilding. They lost 7 seniors from the previous year leaving only 4 veterans to carry on this year. Bearing this in mind, its 3-6 record does not seem quite so dismal.

Cross-country is by no means an easy sport; every individual must strive to the best of his ability every day at practice and not give up. Sparked by Mike Kearns, junior co-captain, the team did better than many expected and the future years of cross-country at Case High look promising!

Case won its third game in its last four in the last second, and each time an inbounds play turned the trick. Kevin Kelly was the beneficiary this time when he was fed under the boards with 10 seconds left and converted for a 60-58 breath-taker from Ashland. Case won similar games from Somerset and Duxbury, the latter in the opening round of the tournament.

What started off as a somewhat dismal looking season, turned out to be one of the greatest seasons in recent Case High basketball history. After opening the first part of the season with losses to Somerset, Connolly and a pair to Holy Family, the amazing Cardinals reeled-off 10 straight victories and the team qualified for the Eastern Mass. Tech Tourney.

In the tourney, Case showed what extreme desire, dedication, pride and all around strength can do for a team as they rose to great heights and took home the runner-up trophy in the tournament finals at Boston Gardens. Many people had counted out the cards from the beginning but that strength and desire overcame all other obstacles and the 1972 Case High basketball team proved that it belongs on the top!

The Girls Varsity basketball team experienced a very unique season this year. Although victory was non-existent, the feeling of defeat was never present. The team always tried hard even against such powers as Durfee and New Bedford. The varsity was also proud of the J.V.'s accomplishments, and are certain that next season will be much different.

D. A. R. Award

Karen Silva

Every year the faculty and Senior class choose a senior girl who has shown service, leadership, patriotism, and dependability. The class of "72" has chosen Karen Silva to be the DAR recipient. This award brings with it, much honor and pride. We feel that Karen deserved it for all her contributions to both the school and the Senior class.

Harvard Book Award

Ken Bradshaw

The Harvard Book Award, a book containing the writings of Harvard graduates, is presented to a Junior boy who shows leadership, scholarship and academic achievement. Kenny Bradshaw has been chosen by the Harvard Club of Fall River for this honor, and the class of "72" feel Kenny is deserving.

Case Students Protest 'Outside' Principal

More than 300 students at Case high school in Swansea walked out of classes at 8:15 yesterday morning to protest the school committee's hiring of a new principal from outside the school system.

After demonstrating peacefully in front of the school for 15 minutes, the students returned to classes at the urging of assistant principal Edward R. Silva, the man the students are supporting for principal.

Michael Medeiros, a senior and one of the student leaders, said after the demonstration that his group would seek a meeting soon with the school committee to try to reverse the board's selection.

Last week the committee announced it had chosen Charles Loverin, assistant principal at Rockland High School, to succeed Miss Helen Reagan, who is retiring in June after 47 years as principal.

Mr. Silva, assistant principal at Case for 17 years, was passed over by the school board during its search for a new administrator earlier this year.

In a statement released during the walkout, students said, "we feel that there was a grave oversight on the part of the school committee not to appoint Edward R. Silva to the position of principal."

"Mr. Silva has gained the respect of the students, which in our own words can never be reached by another man," the statement continued.

The students accused superintendent of schools Donald McCaffrey of giving them "the runaround" when they tried to get information on the "out of town" who is going to take over the school next year.

They also charged school committeeman Robert E. Paquette with failing to represent student interests, which they said he promised to do when elected last year.

The walkout came between the first and second periods of the morning session. More than half of the 515 students at the session participated.

They milled around on the sidewalk in front of the school for fifteen minutes, demanding to speak with Mr. Silva.

Miss Reagan walked out to the group and asked them to return to classes, but they refused to until Mr. Silva came out.

The vice principal said he appreciated the students' concern, but maintained that the decision had been made and urged them to return to classes. They followed his advice without further incident.

Mr. Silva said he was not aware of the students' plan to walk out of classes until yesterday morning, although he had been told of their support for his candidacy for principal.

"We have nothing against the new principal, we just feel Mr. Silva should have gotten the job instead of somebody from the outside," Mr. Medeiros said.

He and several other students maintained that Mr. Silva was more qualified educationally as well as in practical knowledge than the man who got the job.

Reached at her home, Mrs. Angela D. Souza, school committee chairman, said she would be glad to meet with representatives of the students to explain the appointment. But she added that the board's decision was final.

She said Mr. Loverin was chosen over Mr. Silva because of the Rockland man's experience in the open classroom concept of education in high schools.

Mrs. Souza said the new high school planned for Swansea will be built on the open classroom concept and the committee felt that a school administrator with experience in this area was necessary.

The school board chairman said students should have waited until they met Mr. Loverin before deciding to protest his appointment.

He is a very highly qualified man and has great rapport with his students in Rockland, she said.
